

Seminole Strip of the Month 2022

Welcome to our SSOM22! These strips are fast and fun to do, and can look dramatically different depending on your fabric choices, as demonstrated by my two samples below.

Finished size will be a moveable feast because you will have quite a lot of flexibility: making it longer by adding horizontal sashings, and wider by adding borders. Each of the pattern strips is 42 inches wide finished, so will be perfect for a small bed. But you could make two of each strip for an 84 inch centre to a large bed quilt. I also think that any of these strips could be adapted to use as a border for medallion style quilts.

Finally, you really don't need to use only five fabrics (in fact I ran out of some halfway through, and brought in substitutes). You can approach every strip as a new pattern and use up some of your stash. The chart below shows fabric used on version 1, but please feel free to choose your own colours .

Have Fun!

Fabric Requirements for SOM22

- All measurements are in inches.
- Unless otherwise indicated, all lengths are based on full width of fabric (WOF), measuring around 43 inches. I had one that was only 40 inches wide, and it was a pain!
- Requirements for strip 5 varies depending on whether you choose to have floating crosses or an on-point nine patch effect. This also affects the totals for each fabric
- You will also need nine strips of fabric for "sashing" between the rows. I made them very thin (1 inch, which is 0.5 finished), but you can adjust this width (or add more horizontal strips) to make the quilt longer. It is your decision.
